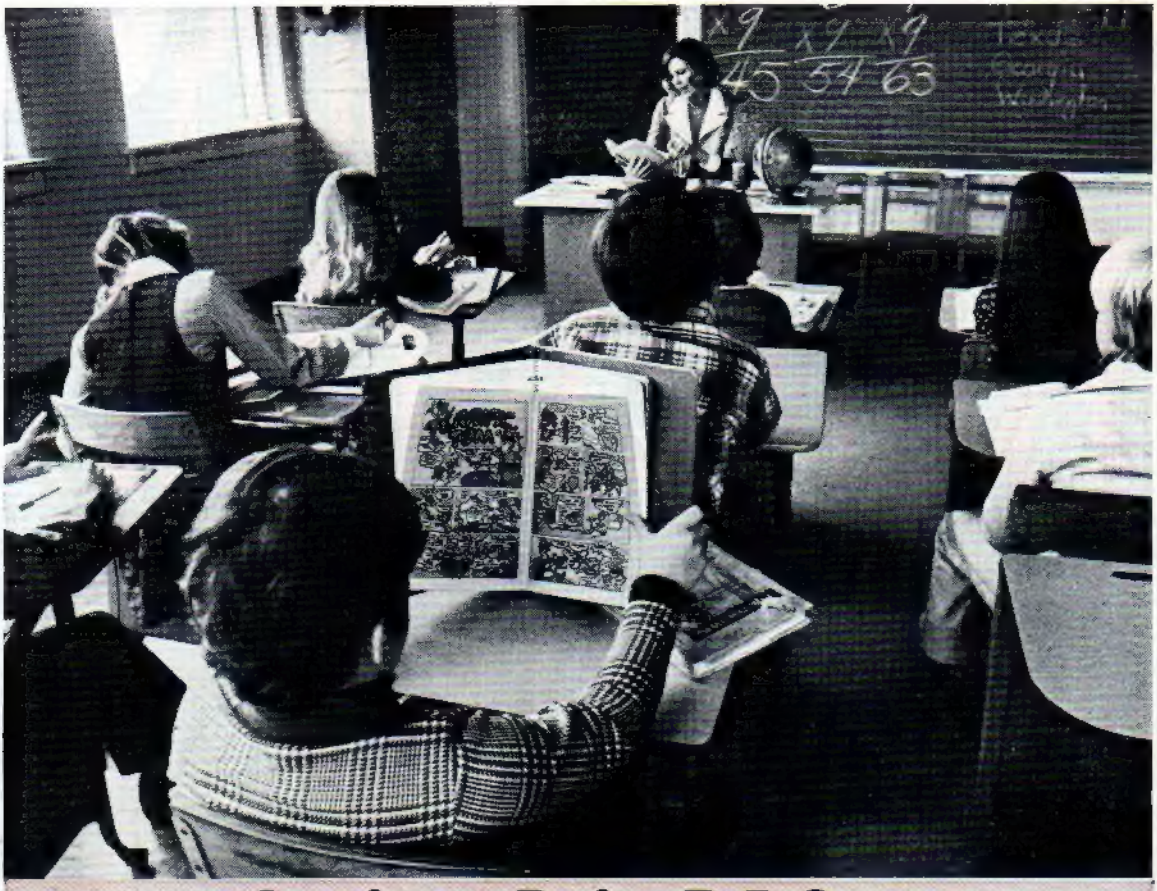
THE LAST BOY ON EARTH!
ANIMAL COMPOUND
DO NOT ENTER



Getting a Daisy B·B Gun is like getting a good grade.

You have to work for it.

We want every boy to enjoy the thrill of owning a Daisy. But we want him to be ready.

You see, a Daisy is a gun. It's not a toy.

You have to be ready to learn marksmanship and proper gun handling. It's a big responsibility.

What kind of boy is ready for his Daisy?

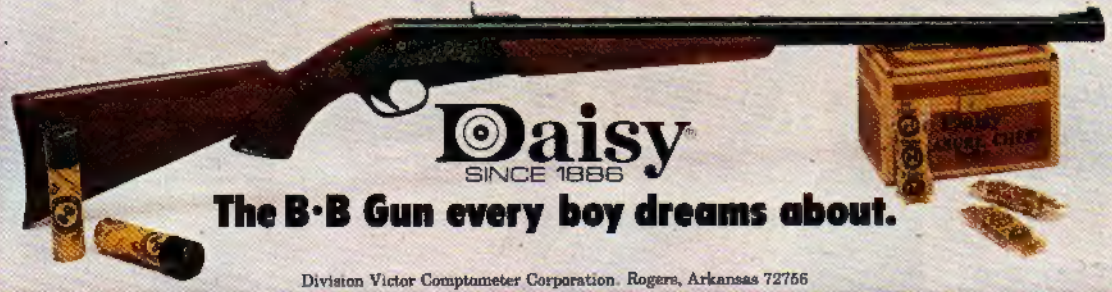
You can tell by the way he handles other things. Like schoolwork, and jobs around the house. He knows how to take serious things seriously.

He knows a gun is no laughing matter. And when he gets his Daisy, he grows up a little more. Because nothing teaches marksmanship and proper gun handling like a Daisy B·B Gun.

If you think you're that kind of boy, talk it over with your parents. Tell them you understand the responsibility of gun ownership, and are ready to practice it.

When you're ready to learn the lessons a Daisy can teach, we'll have a Daisy ready for you.

Send for "The Air Rifle Marksman." Mail your name, address, and 25c to Daisy, P.O. Box 220, Rogers, Arkansas. 72756.



The B·B Gun every boy dreams about.

Let Me PROVE I Can Make YOU A NEW MAN!

ARE you "fed up" with seeing the huskies walk off with the best of everything? Sick and tired of being soft, frail, skinny or flabby — only HALF ALIVE? I know just how you feel. Because I myself was once a puny 97-pound "runt." And I was so ashamed of my scrawny frame that I dreaded being seen in a swim suit.

The Secret of How I Got My Build

Then I discovered a wonderful way to develop my body fast. It worked wonders for me — changed me from the scrawny "runt" I was at 17, into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man." And I can build up YOUR body the very same natural way — without weights, springs or pulleys. Only 15 minutes a day of pleasant practice — in the privacy of your room.

My "Dynamic-Tension" method has already helped thousands of other fellows become real he-men in double quick time. Let it help YOU. Not next month or next year — but Right NOW!

"Dynamic-Tension" Builds Muscles FAST!

If you're like I was, you want a powerful, muscular, well proportioned build you can be proud of any time, anywhere. You want the "Greek-God" type of physique that women rave about at the beach — the kind that makes other fellows green with envy.

THE TIME CAPSULE

By Steve Sherman X-437

Dear Jack,

How can you do this to me??? HOW? I'm not talking about Kamandi, I'm not talking about the art. Again, it's the plot. What we had in the eighth issue of this magazine was another predictable situation. Kamandi attacks another human who beats him; "the great escape"; reunification with Ben Boxer; battle cry; victory and "to be continued!" A mediocre plot indeed!

Perhaps "The Last Boy on Earth's" meeting with the Nuclear People will liven KAMANDI over again. This over-exaggeration of animals has made KAMANDI just another comix 'zine on the shelves.

The human mind is an interesting avenue to explore, Jack. What annoys me most is that Kamandi's environment in the physical sense is exploited to its fullest. The mental phenomenon of "cultural shock" is virtually kept to a minimum or ignored. What goes here?

Also, you seem to have left out Kamandi's origin (from "Command D" in issue #1) promised many an issue ago. C'mon Jack let's concentrate on Kamandi as well as his environment!

Steven Schreiber, Jackson Heights, N.Y.

Dear Jack and Steve,

Wow! Magnificent! Beautiful! Only these words can describe the latest issue of KAMANDI (#8). The cover was a knock-out, the busts of the Presidents make the story start out really different. A good twist.

Pages 6 and 7 proved that my idea of how Kamandi feels toward humans and animals changing places was correct. Sutton must return in a future issue. It was good to see Ben Boxer again.

I go for 22 or 23 pages of story, not 20, but I forgive you since there were two pages of letters. I do want to see Kamandi's origin revealed in the future, if at all possible.

Will D. Nash, Magnolia, N.J.

Hmm, two of our regular readers (and writers) at opposite ends of the scale. Sorry that you don't think Jack's concentrating enough on Kamandi's inner feelings, Steve, but the general reaction seems to follow Will's line of thinking. The pace of the stories makes it a bit difficult to have Kamandi dwell for any length of time on the totality of his predicament (as Dr. Brothers would put it), since this is, first and foremost, an adventure mag. He did make his feelings apparent in #8, as noted, which seemed to work out well. You were both correct, though, in catching us on Kamandi's origin. Up to this point, Jack's concern has been to move the crazy blond kid forward, rather than hold up the parade to sort things out. Now that the mag's established, you can expect the unexpected. In other words, we're working on it!

• • • • •

As long as I have your attention for the moment, I'd like to address myself to those of you in the audience who seem to have this uncontrollable desire to send your money to us. Money for back issues of this magazine, as well as DEMON and MR. MIRACLE. WE DO NOT HAVE ANY. I repeat for those of you who might have missed that, WE DO NOT HAVE ANY BACK ISSUES FOR SALE. I've been asked to get this point across because we've been deluged lately with stacks of mail requesting missed issues. This causes a big hassle since we just have to return the money, which means hours of sorting coins and licking stamps for a certain Mrs. K. who just doesn't have the time.

Honestly, we're grateful that you think enough of the books to want to collect the entire run, but there is no way for us to keep a supply on hand. If you want to be certain of getting every issue, you can either get a subscription (there's usually a coupon in this, or any DC comic) or ask the clerk at the store where you get your comics to set a copy aside for you. (Yes, I know, you're 36 and it's slightly embarrassing, but it's out of our hands). To those of you who are reading this comic for the first time, don't worry. Just stay with us and you'll catch on to what's been going on in no time at all.

As long as I've taken up this much space, this is as good a time as any to thank the many of you who have sent in drawings, poems, stories and such. Jack would like to reply to each one of you personally, but then he'd never get an issue out and you'd have nothing to read, and we'd all be sitting around with our thumbs in our ears! If you don't receive a reply, it's not that you're being ignored. It's just that we're in a situation that only allows us enough time to keep the magazines coming out on schedule, and maybe lunch. In fact, Jack still has letters from 1968 which he's been meaning to answer—and I think one of 'em's from me! As long as you keep sendin' 'em, we'll keep readin' 'em.

• • • • •

Dear Jack,

Watch out. The quality of KAMANDI is slipping. The storylines seem very mundane, padded, and uneventful. The art is just enough to get by. The full-page splashes take up too much room, and the pictures in the lettercol are a waste of space. Just a word of warning. Shape up.

Keith Griffin, Mobile, Ala.

Thanks, Keith. We really needed that. What about the ads, though? Did you like the ads?

All joking aside, next month's KAMANDI is now on Jack's drawing board and it looks like another action-packed adventure, so start putting away 20¢ for your trek back to the newsstand four weeks from now. Meanwhile, why not fill in the wait by sending us your comments on this issue's saga of "The Last Boy on Earth". The address is: THE TIME CAPSULE, P.O. BOX 336, NEWBURY PARK, CALIF. 91320. We look forward to hearing from you.
